From the office:

Many thanks for the overwhelmingly supportive comments regarding this newsletter. There have been some super thoughts about how we can make it even better and once all of the questionnaires have been returned I will respond in full. I will equally share the responses to the recent whole school questionnaire, which again, is overwhelmingly positive. We have happy families, happy children and happy staff with just one or two things to improve upon

Class Assemblies – for all our new families when you see your child's class assembly date appear on the diary dates opposite that is an opportunity for you to come to school and watch their assembly. They begin at 9.10am (ish) in the school hall and usually last 25minutes.

NSPCC Sponsored Buddy Workout

Fantastic news, we managed to raise a grand total of £573.85, with the winning class being Elm who raised the most. Kia would like to say a huge thank you to everyone that took part. The money raised will go towards the fight for every childhood, helping to protect children from abuse.

Plea from Miss Pettit

Please could parents not put water bottles in book bags as several have leaked over our new reading books and reading records.

Letters home:

- Parent evening information letters for Year R to Y4.
- Pumpkin Carving Competition information
- Oak trip to Cadbury World

Fashion show extravaganza

Thank you to everyone for supporting the fashion show last night. It was a huge success and we hope to get a final figure raised very soon. A special thank you to Mrs Pam Stubbs, Mrs Dawn Deakin and Mrs Kath Harris – all Governors of Fladbury School, for organising and enabling it run as smoothly as it did. When I left the wine was certainly flowing and the cash till ringing!

Another big thank you must go to the staff for “agreeing” to model the clothes. As a consequence their purses are lighter, but great fun was had by all. What a great way to celebrate World Teacher Day by saying thank you to them all!
